

12 LAW OF BLOODSTAIN EVIDENCE	Page 1 of 1
Division of Forensic Science BLOODSTAIN PATTERN ANALYSIS TRAINING MANUAL	Amendment Designator:
	Effective Date: 15-October-2004
12 LAW OF BLOODSTAIN EVIDENCE 12.1 Objectives 12.1.1 To understand the history of Bloodstain Evidence 12.2 Methods of Instruction 12.2.1 Lecture and Discussion 12.2.2 Literature References 12.2.2.1 Compton v. Commonwealth, 219 Va. 716, 250 S.E. 2d 749 (1979) 12.2.2.2 Certificate of Analysis – Case N00 – 3341, Virginia Division of Forensic Science 12.2.2.3 Englert, R., “Bloodstain Pattern Interpretation”, presentation to the National College of District Attorneys, 1991 12.2.2.4 Stuart v. Commonwealth, 245 Va. 222, 427, S>E>2d 394 (1993) 12.2.3 Training Tools 12.2.3.1 Enlert, R., “Homicide, Suicide, or Accident” 12.2.3.2 Edel, C. F., “Let’s see what we are looking at”, Broward Sheriff’s Office Forensic Unit 12.3 Evaluation 12.3.1 Discussion and Review of Elements Studied ◆End	